

Lauren Elizabeth-Barthe Charles

March 7, 2021

Lauren Elizabeth-Barthé Charles, beloved daughter of John C. Charles, Jr. and the late Trudy Barthé Charles, transitioned from earth to glory on March 7, 2021. Born in New Orleans, Louisiana on November 4, 1980, Lauren possessed a keen intellect, a zest for life and an insatiable curiosity.

She graduated from Benjamin Franklin High School and went on to earn degrees from Johns Hopkins University, Pratt Institute and The University of Oregon School of Law. She was an accomplished professional and lived in the Washington DC area working as an attorney/lead project manager assigned to the Department of Justice for Leidos. She was an avid reader, an adventurous traveler and foodie, a fierce friend, a gifted leader, a kind soul and a lover of God and people.

Lauren was preceded in death by her mother Trudy Barthé Charles and her grandparents, Earl A. Barthé and Louise Joyce Soublet Barthé, John Carlos Charles Sr. and Elenor Pierre Charles, and her aunt and godmother, Terry Barthé. She leaves to cherish her memory, her father, John C. Charles Jr.; a host of aunts, uncles and cousins; her godchildren Sebastian Stephenson and Harmony Lewis; and friends too numerous to count.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that we honor Lauren's life and legacy through philanthropy. Donations may be made to establish a law student scholarship fund at the University of Oregon School of Law or to establish The Lauren Elizabeth-Barthé Charles Memorial Fund at the Greater New Orleans Foundation.
