

Lloyd Joseph Davis

March 4, 2021

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course. I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. II Timothy 4:6-8.

Lloyd Joseph Davis was born in Ama, LA to his loving parents, the late Samuel J. Davis, Sr. and Mame Williams, on September 26, 1940. Lloyd departed this earthly life on 4 day, March 2021.

He and his siblings, Doris Davis and Samuel Davis, Jr., were reared in a loving Christian home where they were taught the word of God by their father. "Train a child in the way he should go and when he is old, he will never depart from it." Proverbs 22:6 – Lloyd accepted Christ at a very young age and he served faithfully at church until his passing. Further, he loved reading his Bible every morning and praying before getting his day started.

Lloyd, later in life, married his first wife who she gave birth to a beautiful daughter, Vanessa Jornier. Twenty years later, he married his present wife, Joann Davis, and to their union, three beautiful children were born, Mieko (his birthday twin), Makitha and Lloyd, Jr.; as well as his lovely stepdaughter, Michelle, who he helped to raise. Lloyd was an amazing man, father, uncle and grandfather who truly loved his children and his family. He was a long-time employee of AAA Cooper Trucking Company where he earned "Employee of the Year" five years in a row. He later ventured off to start his own lawn service business where he prospered tremendously. Years later, he semi-retired and began doing security work with Bayou State Security until he finally decided to completely retire.

Lloyd was handsome with a smile that would light up a room. In addition, he was a very loving man, who was strong, courageous, peaceful; and, most importantly, he was a praying, god-fearing man. In his younger years, he would dress 'clean as the board of health,' throw on his Old Spice cologne, and attend concerts, parties, family barbeques or Mardi Gras (which was one of his favorite holidays). During that time, he loved a good old Budweiser either in the bottle or the can. Shucks, he would ride around with a cooler in the bed of his truck that was full of them. And, he loved animals -- there was never a time where he wasn't the owner of at least two dogs.

He was a "Jack of all Trades"; he was just good at everything he did, from fixing cars to painting houses to cutting grass. Any job that was deemed for a man, you could call on Lloyd or should we say, "Ole Poppa" because that was one of his favorite lines.

Lloyd leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife, Joann Davis; his four children, Vanessa Joiner (Oscar, Jr.), Mieko Branch, Makitha Branch and Lloyd Branch, Jr.; his granddaughter, Khristian Branch, as well as 21 other grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

We will cherish the memories of Lloyd Joseph Davis' love in our hearts forever. We give thanks to our Savior Jesus Christ for the 80 years of his cherished life. We loved him and will miss him dearly. To God be the glory for the things He has done. Amen.
