“ The phone would ring and I would hear that booming voice. "Hey, hey hey, What it is?". Our annual Mardi Gras call. "What float you on?" and I would let him know. We would then swap stories about family, friends and work related experience's. I remember the last time I saw him. He was on the Canal St. Neutral Ground. I toasted him from the float and then patted my heart and pointed to him. He did the same. RIP my friend.....John Marincic

“ *My dear friend
St. Philip School and Mother Charlotte, our drill sergeant, seems like yesterday. We were so very young. ; how quickly the years have passed. And Lo and behold our friendship was rekindled at Bellsouth after you served in the military. I was shocked and surprised to see you In the 4A toll central office, you were the Switchman; Being the first women in that job, I was called the Switch Bxxxx.*

*My heart is broken, but I know you are in a better place.
Rest in Peace my dear friend*

*Love
