“ Daddy...as a dedicated and loving husband, you have been the same way from the day I met you. Loving and caring, always putting us before yourself, thinking of things we needed before we thought of them ourselves, and things we didn't need that you felt we should have anyway. I will love and cherish you always and will always be reminded of you whenever I look at our children. You are gone in body but not in spirit...and will NEVER be forgotten. Daddy...you know I will always love you, will always be thinking of you because as we always said...you have always been the apple of my eye! Daddy...you are not gone away from us...only gone to rest.

Love You Always...Honeypot

“ My cousin introduced me to Lucien, Albert's youngest of 2 sons, 8 1/2 years ago, citing that "I needed to realize that there WERE quality men in the world that were not unavailable or related to me." They say that if a man is good to his mom, then "He's a keeper!" (there was no question of that - their relationship is loving with deep rooted warmth and respect.) As I grew to know Lucien and his family, deeply falling in love with all that I saw in Lucien, I soon realized it was his father, Albert, who gave him the BEST example of how a man should love and care for his bride, his only love, his family. My father-n-law demonstrated selfless, unyielding, focused love for his wife. I NEVER saw him look at her with ANYTHING but loving looks in his eyes. Although Lucien has received gifts of love and character from both of his parents, I will look to the heavens daily and thank my father-n-law, Albert J. Perry, for taking on the reigns of responsibility, life, love and family AND for passing on to his son, my husband, how to be a quality man and awesome husband. I love you SO much "Daddy" and I THANK YOU, for all that you were to your family and how beautiful you ALWAYS will be to me.

“ Pops.... You are My Hero! You are the kind of man who had a generous heart, who loved and took care of your family, who served your country proudly and who was stronger than anyone I will ever know. Thank you so much for teaching me to be the man that I am! I will miss you so much, but I know you are with God. God fulfilled His promise and called you Home. You will forever be in our hearts, minds and spirits. Mama, Chris and I love you very much and you will never be forgotten, but celebrated and cherished forever.

Love you Old Man.....your Baby Boy.
