

Albert Jean Victorienne Jr

March 13, 2022

Albert Jean Victorienne, Jr. affectionately known as Junior to his family and Vic to his many close friends. Junior was born on October 28, 1933, to Albert J. Victorienne, Sr. and Birdie Bush Victorienne.

Junior spent most of his life in the heart of the historic 7th Ward. He was a graduate of Corpus Christi Elementary School, Xavier Prep High School and Xavier University receiving a Bachelor of Arts in education. Afterwards, he served 1955-57 in the Navy and returned to school for his master's in education at University of Arizona. Vic became a principal in the New Orleans Public School District where he served at Lawless and Nelson Elementary Schools.

To know Vic was to love him. He had a very special infectious personality. He always had a good joke or story to share. Vic was quite the entertainer, he was well known and had friends everywhere.

Junior was preceded in death by the love of his life, Yolande Boutte Victorienne; his daughter, Karen; his son, Albert III; his parents, Birdie and Albert Sr.; his sisters, Ursula, Audrey Petivan and Miriam Ortique.

He leaves to cherish his memories his beloved daughter, Kathy Hebert and her husband Clarence; his grandchildren, Marci Armour, Mark Armour (Tammy) and Adam Victorienne; great grandchildren, Elijah Armour and Brian Wyatt and a host of relatives and friends.
