“ Dear Cleo Carriere & Family,
I am deeply sadden by the loss of your wonderful mother. 2 1/2 years I moved back to New Orleans, LA. the first chance I got I went to your mother's house to see how everybody was doing. At that moment I was lost for words to find the house empty. I have such fond memories of Mrs. Alice and you all. I first met Cleo and Pam in 7th grade at C.J. Colton. I immediately become friends with you all. I so often visited your home an spent numerous years listening to Mrs. Alice tell us stories and words of wisdom. I loved those times and I will never forget her warm, caring, motherly, funny personality. I wish your family peace during this difficult time. I share your grief because I lost my Mom some years back an I still miss her so much.. God Bless you all and the Peace of The Lord be with You. Deepest Sympathy. Debbie Collins Larkins & family.
