“ My condolences to my family on the transition of my wonderful cousin and sister Alicia Antoine Johnson. I was one of her biggest fans and she was one of mine. My world was the essence of beauty and magic because from birth we supported each other and helped to make this life a better place for all who knew us, to live in. treasure and enjoy. Farewell my cousin and sister. Until we meet again. God be with you.

“ I did not know Ms. Alicia, but knew of her through her son Jack. You can tell a lot about someone from the children they raised. She raised a kind, considerate son and her memory will live on through her children and grandchildren. Antoine family I am extremely sorry for your loss. I pray that God gives you comfort during this difficult time. May God guide Ms. Alicia to rest in eternal peace. (edited by Rhodes staff)
