“ Let me start with sharing my condolences to all my cousins. Aunt Allison was the best cook that I knew. She could make the house smell so pleasant with her cooking. She would always put on this beautiful smile everytime I would go over to visit her home. As a kid when halloween would come around, her home was my first stop. She had all the home made goodies. I needed not to continue trick or treating, because she would fill my bag. With her cooking being the best, I could not figure why the family did not own a restaurant. Thank God for telephone. My mom and aunt Allison would talk on the phone every day. Could you imagine if the had to walk every time want to talk 6 or 7 times in a day. I have so many great memories with aunt Allison, but cannot tell them all. Rest in Peace and May God Bless You !!!!!
