Altonette “Nettie” Ricard Jackson

A resident of New Orleans for over 80 years, beloved Mother of Lance Jackson (Bielka), Michele’ Rideau (Errol), and Charles Jackson, Jr., born on Saturday, September 25, 1943, departed this life on Friday, June 28, 2024 to enter God’s Kingdom. She was the loving daughter of the late Alton J. Ricard, Sr. and Emelda Amadee Ricard and the sister of Barbara Landix, Alton J. Ricard, Jr., and Lisa Schexnader (Reed). Grandmother of Brandon Jackson, Amber Jackson, Andrew Rideau, Kelsey Rideau, Joshua Jackson, Gabrielle Jackson, Sofia Jackson, and Sabrina Jackson. Great-Grandmother of Ja’Lon Jackson and Jreux Jackson. She is survived by a host of nieces, great nieces, a great nephew, cousins, and friends. She attended Corpus Christi and McCarthy schools and was a proud graduate of St. Mary’s Academy Class of 1961; a parishioner of St. Anthony’s of Gretna and Holy Spirit of Algiers. Her 30 year career path in retail began at Sears Roebuck Oakwood before transitioning to Levitz and Compass Furniture and retiring in 2004. A Celebration of her life will be held at 10 am on Saturday, July 13, 2024, at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 6201 Stratford Place, Algiers, LA 70131 followed by Catholic Mass at 11 am. The family would like to thank healthcare professionals who provided care and support especially Fresenius Kidney Care Center.

Nettie's love was best expressed when she was cooking, entertaining, and feeding family and friends. An excellent cook, her meals were steeped in family tradition; prepared with a multitude of memory, a dash of love, and always mixed with joy. To date, whenever any inquires about the best place to eat in New Orleans we all proudly say...Nettie's Place!

The family invites all in attendance to a repast at "A Day to Remember Garden Club", 1785 Carol Sue Ave., Terrytown, LA immediately following Mass. Please visit www.rhodesfuneral.com to sign the online guestbook.
