

Alvena Brock McNeil

November 6, 2019

Alvena Brock McNeil, a retired certified surgical technician with the LSU Healthcare Network for 29 1/2 years, died at the age of 80 on November 6, 2019. Alvena was born on October 25, 1939, in New Orleans to the union of Braulio Corpus Brock, Sr., and Hazel Williams-Brock. She was a lifelong resident of New Orleans. Alvena was a very proud graduate of Booker T. Washington Senior High School. After attending Charity Hospital's Surgical Technology School, she was one of the first people to pass the newly instituted certification exam for surgical technicians. Alvena is survived by 4 daughters: Avis M. Brock, Aloreia M. Gilyot (Joseph), Kelly McNeil Legier (Ernest Jr.), and Kimberly C. McNeil, M.D.; 8 grandchildren: Kyshawanna Brock Bridges (Tony), Benjamin J. Gilyot, Kaitlyn M. Gilyot, Ernest P. Legier, III, Jonathan M. Legier, Nicholas A. Legier, Imani J. Alston, and Marchann L. Alston; a granddaughter-in-law, Brittiny Hubbard McNeil; 5 great grandchildren; her sister, Annie Crawford; an uncle, Elray Jones, Sr.; and several nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by many loved ones including her parents, brother (Braulio Corpus Brock, Jr.), ex-husband (Bobby W. McNeil), and grandson (NOPD Officer Marcus A. McNeil). Alvena was a devoted parishioner of St. Raymond and St. Leo the Great Catholic Church. The family warmly welcomes relatives and friends of the family, priest and parishioners of St. Raymond and St. Leo the Great Catholic Church, and former parishioners of St. Theresa the Little Flower of Jesus Catholic Church; pastor, officers and members of Fifth African Baptist Church; the Booker T.

Washington Senior High School Class of 1958 as well as the BTW Alumni Association; and current and former employees of the LSU Healthcare Network (especially those who worked in the LSU Medical Center in New Orleans), St. Francis Villa Assisted Living Home, and Mt.
