“ A honorable man of God, that is what your were. Every morning and every night I would see you on your knees praying. I would often walk in your room and catch you reading the bible. You were able to quote the bible word by word. You would always put God first. I know that is what made you a great man. you were such a wonderful and awesome grandfather. You were always there for your family. I will never forget you Paw Paw. I miss seeing you around, but I know one day I'll see you again. Until then I'll carry your memories, and the image of your warm smile in my heart forever. I will share all my memories of you with my kids and raise them to be respectable and honorable men of God, like you. You will forever live on through your family and friends. Love you a bunch Paw Paw.

“ What a blessing to have lived ninety-four years!!!! Scripture says that a righteous man lives three-score and ten. Well Mr. Alvin was truly that. I remember when my grandmother went to pick up Brandon from the Richardson household. She and Mr. Alvin went to school together and had lost touch. My grandmother said "Alvin and is a good man very proud and dignified"..
