“ Dear Roger Richard Jr and Family,
I just got my St Bernard Voice and saw the loss of sweet Annie Mae. I remember some very happy phone calls I made to her about reports, advice, etc. and she was always wonderful to me.

I am so sorry for your loss of a lovely lady. My sincere condolences to you and all the family.

Roger, when I read the piece in the Voice, I saw that Irma also has passed on to be with our Lord. I did not know about Irma. I had great memories of her teaching at Lacoste also. Another funny thing I remember is one year I was riding in The Krewe of Juno, a very long time ago. Our float stopped in Arabi on the St Bernard Hwy and I was so glad to take my mask off a few minutes to cool off. While my mask was off my face, I scanned the crowd and oh my goodness, right in front of me was Irma! I yelled her name over and over and a lady next to her showed her who was doing all that yelling at her. She looked at me a long minute before she frowned wondering where she knew me from....I yelled Jacquie from Lacoste Office. Then she grinned at me and I waved to her to come closer to me. I threw her unopened bags of beads and some kind of stuffed animal I had for kids. She got it all just as my float began moving again! I was delighted to see her. That is the last time I saw her but I remember the look when she was trying to remember me in that crazy costume.

Again, Roger, I'm so sorry for your loss. Your sisters were very sweet to me.

God bless all of you in your time of sorrow.

Love,
Jacquie Kelley
Secretary of old Lacoste.

“ *Dear Roger Jr and family,
I am so sorry to learn of your loss with the death of Annie Mae. It has been years since I've spoken to or seen Annie Mae but how I loved those phone conversations. She was such a refined, serious, caring lady and I'm grateful for having had her touch my life all too briefly.
I hope you get to read this little message and know also how fond I always was all those years we worked together at our Lacoste. You were a delightful friend.
Annie Mae is now in her beautiful new home with the Lord...safe from all earthly pain and troubles. Only beauty and love surrounds her now.
I miss you, Roger, and hope you are doing well.
With my sincere caring for you and your grieving family, I will pray for Annie and all of you.
Sincerely, your friend,
Jacquie Kelley

“ I worked with Annie at St. Bernard School Board as a COE student and later as secretary to the Superintendent. She was a lovely and steadfast person, always proper, helpful and very sweet to a young girl new to the job. Haven't seen her in years but she's one of those people who I've always thought about with great fondness. Sandra Savoye Dartus
