“ I can't believe my Anthony is gone. I remember the day I met you. Days before our birthdays. From that day on you adopted me as your niece. My heart aches soo bad. My parents & I will never see you again when we come to NOLA. We never gone see your face when we knock on the door to see if we can park onside the house, never gone get that laugh when cracking jokes, etc., with you anymore. Take your rest unc, you did your due diligence when you here and you did it well. I love you, will miss you deeply along with that laugh of your. I will continue to pray for the family and visit Auntie Sheila and Momma Bernadette whenever I can.

“ Anthony was a valet at The Carol. He helped me with my walker and groceries many times. He was always smiling and pleasant. He was the best. He will be very hard to replace. He died much too young but I know he is in heaven. He will be missed by many. Instead of flowers we are sending money to his family. Rest In Peace, Anthony.
