Tribute Wall

“ Ben was the last person I saw before moving away from New Orleans. He helped me load my moving truck. I will never forget his helpfulness, his kindness, his heart, and his leadership. I pray for his daughter, for the loss she can never regain in this lifetime, but that she might be blessed by the kindness of her father coming to her when she most needs it. We will all miss you, Ben. I wish I could've spent more time with you on our return visits to New Orleans. God's peace to you.
