“ Sending sincere love and condolences in the home going celebration of your love one BJ Randall Sr. Bj was always a quiet and humble spirit but I see he left his mark in children 😭❤️❤️❤️ I remember back in the days Bj hanging out at my house on Chippewa St. with Dookie, my deceased son Bg. Derrick, Red neck my nephew David, Red an a few more. Everyone cracking jokes but Bj was always the silent one yet full of laughter that came with love. It's been years since I last seen his smiling face but I can never forget none of them for we all were a family the good old days. The same day I heard Bj had transitioned from this life a picture we took years ago at Super Sunday Shakespeare park popped up on my fb page memories tripped me out, so I now share ithe ❤️ with you his immediate family. My last encounter, Red & Bj stooping and I'm throwing up my 10's representing 😭.

Get your rest Bj no more sickness and pain 🙏❤️🙏 gone but never forgotten 🙏❤️🙏
