“ Nikolya you are definitely in our prayers. We are so sorry that our bonus nephew has left us so soon, but God is in control of every situation. I have so many memories of my "Liil Chris" from a baby to a young man. Chris came along after Lauren, and he was her shadow.-everywhere that Lauren "Tishae" went Chris was sure to go from the bus rides to Granny Bert's house, doing homework and playing. He was always nothing but smiles and he could melt your heart away. I will continue to pray for your strength during this difficult time. We love "Chris" and we will miss him, but God loved him more. Just look to the hills from whence cometh your health. Luv Patricia Jenkins Hutcherson

“ While paging through this morning’s New Orleans Advocate, Chris’s obituary caught my eye and I paused to read it. It is beautifully written. I am truly saddened that such a promising young life has been cut short. He was obviously much loved by his large family and many friends. My sincerest condolences.
