“ My deepest condolences to the Stroughter and Hogan families. Britt was such a beautiful young woman. I had the pleasure of watching her grow up in New Zion Church. When she was a toddler, I would always tease her about her pretty legs and the big ruffled socks that Wanda would dress her in. As she grew up I always admired how she carried herself and that beautiful smile she had.

“ I remember her when she was born...holding her during choir practice. And with every year, she grew even more beautiful. As I had my children and they grew, she became someone they looked up to and admire for her beautiful spirit. She will be missed, but we know God loved you more. We love Brittany, my sweet soror! Wanda and family our prayers and love are always with you. May God send his angels to provide you peace and comfort. Rest in God's arms where you will find all comfort and joy of loving Brittany. Love the Jackson Family--Anika, Marcus, Jr., Andrew, and Skylar.

“ Remembering Brittany: Brittany Stroughter was the epitome of sheer excellence. We watched her grow up in Zion from infancy to adulthood, She was perfect as perfect could be & she did everything according to the book. Britt was a gorgeous role model, well mannered, respectful, intelligent, & always wore a big beautiful smile. She wore her crown & she wore it well. She ran her race, ran it well & finished her course with grace. Britt's smile will now enhance heaven as she rest & walk around heaven all day & night. We will miss her glow & smile, but heaven has gained a precious jewel. RIH Brittany. To Wanda, Jonathan & Mr. Stroughter: Our deepest condolences & we offer each of you Jesus because Jesus is the only one who can give you strength in the midst of weakness, hope in the midst of heartaches, happiness in the midst of heaviness & he will wipe all tears away. Just cast all your cares on the Lord & call on him when you need comforting. Remember: Matthew 5.4 states, Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. 🙏

“ Wanda: May the Lord embrace you and family in His comforting arms, hold you, and give you the strength that you need. We are in such shock and deep sorrow to learn of the loss of Brittany. I can still see her as a tot peeping through Ms. Ina's screen next door to me on Paris Ave. I will continue in prayer that the Lord gives you the peace and comfort that I know He can give. She is in His arms now, watching over you.

Love you all,
