“ He is a King amongst men. His example of class, easy going, no none sense funny love made him a brother and friend to many. It was our good fortune and Gods Grace that allowed Bruce to share his light and his life with us. We will be forever changed because of him and will miss him immensely. The day may have dawned on his life in this physical world but the light he cast upon us all will never stop shining. Love You Bruce and I'll Miss You Forever My Brother, Rest In Peace....
