“ Calvin and I were classmates and friends through our years at Corpus Christi School.

He and I were in the Boys Choir there and were in an operetta of Sleeping Beauty when we were very young kids. He was the king and I was Prince Charming. Opera Star, Debria Brown was our Sleeping Beauty. Calvin was a talented, bright and nice person.

Had not seen him since our teens. We lived on opposite sides of the country. The memories, though, are so very strong and nice.

“ I had the great privilege of working with Calvin during my years with the Orleans Parish School Board. He was not only my supervisor, but a dear friend. He was so dedicated to the task at hand and always, always wanted the best outcome for the students and staff of our public schools. I can remember Calvin's so sweet and tender dedication to his parents' care and his great love for his beautiful Pat. Thank you, Calvin, for your guidance and friendship. I will never forget you.
