

Carrie Maxine Holtry Daniels

April 15, 2018

C. Maxine H. Daniels transitioned peacefully at her home with her Goddaughter Pamela Carter (Rocky) by her side on Sunday, April 15, 2018. She is survived by her Goddaughter, Pamela Carter and her family. Mrs. Daniels was 98 at the time of her death and she was the oldest living Zulu Queen (1976) prior to her death. The Zulu Social Aid & Pleasure Club celebrated Mrs. Daniels a few years ago at a celebration at Lakeside Mall and she was also recognized at the Zulu Ball. Mrs. Daniels marched with the late Dr. Martin L. King, Jr. in Selma, Alabama. Mrs. Daniels was a civil rights activist, entrepreneur, retired educator and art teacher. In 1995, she was one of five women celebrated and inducted into Louisiana's Women and Government Hall of Fame. Mrs. Daniels was a proud member of the LA Chapter of The Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Mrs. Daniels was an honorary citizen for The City of New Orleans. In 1996, she received The Louis A. Martinet Legal Society Earl A. Amedee Human Rights Award. She also received the 1st Annual Mayors Medal of Honor Award on May 21, 1995. Mrs. Daniels has numerous awards and accomplishments.

Relatives and friends of the family, pastor, officers and members of Greater St. Stephen Full Gospel Baptist Church, Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church, Evening Star Baptist Church, all neighboring churches, Former Queens of Zulu and Zulu Social Aid & Pleasure Club Members, also employees of Regions Bank are invited to attend The Celebration of Mrs. Daniels amazing

“ I first met Queen Carrie and some members of her family at the Zulu ball a few years ago. I was amazed by her beauty and grace. I only wish I would have known her better. I was present when she was put on the stage that night and remained in awe of her grace and beauty. I was able to spend some time with her that night and am grateful for it. Heaven certainly has another angel. You have your heavenly crown now my queen. God Bless. We lift you all up in prayer 🙏
