

Charles Manley

July 13, 2020

Charles Manley departed this earth on Monday, July 13, 2020 at the age of 87. Charlie as he was affectionately known, was the fourth child born to Charles Manley and Florence Cavalier Manley. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Flora Robinson Manley and three siblings: Ula Mae, Quentin, and Florence Manley. He is survived by one sister: Geraldine Manley Cheek of The Villages, Florida. Charlie worked for many years alongside of family members at the Boston Club. He was also employed by the Housing Authority of New Orleans and Liberty Bank and Trust Company before his retirement. Charlie loved New Orleans and everyone who knew him enjoyed his jovial spirit. Charlie will be sadly missed by his nieces, nephews, and cousins, Marie Varnado and family, Aaron McDonald, Alden McDonald, and family who regularly assisted him. The family would like to especially thank Cheanell Parker, the staff of St. John Berchmans and Covenant Nursing Home for their special care, support, and friendships he garnered as a resident.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Raymond/St. Leo the Great Catholic Church, 2916 Paris Avenue, New Orleans, La on Friday, July 24, 2020 at 10:00 am. Visitation begins at 9:30 am. Father Anthony Bozeman, Celebrant. All in attendance are required to adhere to all COVID-19 restrictions including the wearing of a mask and practicing social distance. Arrangements by D.W. Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Avenue.
