“ Our beloved father & grandfather is forever with us in heart and spirit; laid to rest in body, Wednesday, December 29, 2021. As he requested, his final resting place is among family and friends who preceded him in death.

I would like to thank the Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church family for a beautiful "Celebration of Life" for my Dad, Ms. Delores for the love and care she provided; my sisters Janice and LaQueena, niece Raquel their attention to details in preparing a loving obituary and funeral service, and everyone who were able to attend to share our loss; our cousin Roy Smith for coordinating his burial as Dad requested, and extend blessings, to you, family, and friends. I pray you all remember Charles Ray Ulmer, Sr. for the God he served, and the good he shared in our lives...

To my brothers Charles Ray Ulmer, Jr., and Derrick Ulmer, our father gave us a foundation on which to build our lives, from this day forward, work each day to make your mother Evelyn, and our father proud...

Special thank you to the Rhodes Funeral Home Family; the director prepared my father with care; he looked as family planned, Resting in Peace...
