“ Courtney I remember you in the beginning as being a little girl who was determined to have it your way. Somewhat stubborn but loving & caring. One Mardi Gras when your dad & I was visiting he picked you & your siblings up & brought y'all to my sister's house. You were about 12-13 yrs old & you out danced all the kids & adults on the floor. Yeah you were a Great dancer. Your 1st flight to Las Vegas you were quite a trooper. You took everything in & enjoyed experience, even our trip to the amusement park in Cali. We use to touch base via Facebook or text from time to time but lately, Keedie would keep laughing at something you had done or said. I've always known you would be a force to reckon with. I say to your children, mom, dad, siblings & other relatives, we will all miss you Greatly but the memories will live on. May God continue to Comfort & Strengthen us all as you RIP 🙏🙏🙏 Love Brenda Lewis
