

Cynthia Ann Cambric

March 30, 2021

Sister Cynthia Ann Cambic was born on January 29, 1953 in New Orleans, La. to the late Elijah L. Jones and the late Mamie Matthews Jones. Cynthia transitioned from her earthly life and entered into Heavenly Rest on March 30, 2021 at The Sanctuary at Passages in New Orleans, La. She is preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Leonard Jones. Cynthia married once to Alvin Cambric.

Cynthia was baptized at an early age and remained faithful her entire life. At the time of her death, she was a member of Holy Hill Baptist Church in Harvey, La under the leadership of Senior Pastor Leon Hannibal. While residing in Los Angeles California she was a member of Bethany Baptist Church of West Los Angeles. Cynthia graduated High School from Walter L. Cohen in 1971 where she also received a certificate in Book Keeping. Cynthia worked most of her life in the Medical Field as a Medical Secretary.

Cynthia is best known for her infectious laugh, the enormous amount of joy that she brought into the lives of those who knew her and how she treated all children in her family as if they were her own. Anyone who spent a small amount of time with Cynthia quickly learned that she lived life to the fullest, enjoyed listening to Frankie Beverly and Maze and she loved her family more than anything else in this world. But most importantly, it was evident that she was a woman of unwavering faith!
