“ My sincere condolences to the Porter family. I am truly sorry to hear of the loss. Do know that a loss for you was a loss for me as well. Ms. Cynthia was like my own mom. She always had that beautiful smile and an abundance of encouraging words even when she was fussing at me and Chantell..lol . She will be missed but God has a better plan for that beautiful smile and those kind encouraging words. The goal now is to meet her again. That can only happen if/when we condition our minds to think the way she would have wanted. When the trumpet sounds on this side for all of us, rest assured she will be at heavens gate... ready and willing to accept all the love she left behind.

On behalf of myself and the Ellis family, stay encouraged in the lord and allow him to have his way... unselfishly. The scripture reminds us that an absence from the body implies a presence with lord. We can all agree that this beautiful lady is present with the lord. Be blessed family.

*Respectfully,
Cardell Ellis, Ph.D.*
