“ This not only hurts me, but hit me like a runaway freight train. This man was not only my first cousin, but my best friend from the time that we were old enough to even acknowledge what cousins were. Dave and I did almost everything together as we were growing up in Gert Town. I knew so well, that he would actually have to think twice about trying to pull something over on me. He'd laugh and so would I, once he knew that I was onto him. We worked together, played together, he taught me how to slow dance back in the days of the old nickel juke boxes. He and I both not only enjoyed, but loved to fish. There was always competition between the two of us. It was always friendly, as I cannot think of one time in our entire lifetime where he and I ever argued or had a fight. He was like a brother to me and I don't know how I'll ever think of back home without thinking of him. Cousin, you will truly be missed by the other Jr, in the family. Yes, it was always, Davey, Jr and Raymond, Jr. Love you Cuz!!!
