“ Dolores was my mother's first cousin. She was a dear family member to us. She was always ready to help when she could. She will be very much missed by her remaining family members. We love her and will always cherish your memory. I'm very sorry I cannot make the funeral because I'm not well right now, but I'll be praying for her and I've had a mass for her, the mass is for the propose of her soul, Our family has also sent flowers Jacquelyn Kilgore Monroe.
