“Diallo always carried a serious expression, so I would often say something just to get a reaction out of him. One of my most memorable moments with him was unexpectedly running into him at DiMartino’s after work. He was sitting there enjoying what I believe was a shrimp sandwich. I’m not sure why, but out of all the encounters I had with him, that one had stayed with me the most.

In times of sorrow, the only consolation that brings me peace is found in Proverbs 3:5-6: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths.”

Sharon, I hope this verse brings you comfort and strength as it has for me
