“ I miss talking with you everyday, having lunch with you, and taking care of different errands for you. You always had time to listen to me. I will never forget how you were there for me when I was in the hospital. You were always there for me during the most difficult times in my life. You were my best friend. I will always love and miss you!

Elonda Reese

“ I wish that I had the opportunity to reconnect with Dianne as I often thought of her on numerous occassions and inquired of her with family. She will be missed, but her memory of how she influenced my life will always live on as I have followed in her footsteps by completing my journey of becoming a Counselor.

Love always your daughter,

Rhonda Dumas
