

Dolores Francis Morrison

July 12, 2019

Dolores Francis Morrison, affectionately known as Dee Dee to her friends and family entered into her eternal rest on July 12, 2019 at the age of 59. Dee Dee was the beloved daughter of Gwendolyn Morrison and the late Albert J. Morrison, Jr., sister of Carol Ann Robinson and the late LaVerne Morrison. She was the granddaughter of the late Dolores and Sidney Harrison, Sr. and Dorothy and Albert J. Morrison, Sr. She leaves behind her great aunt Melvina Bannister and aunts Lucille Harrison, Shelia Ashley (Marvin), Marion Lyons (Thomas), Barbara Jones, Janice Morrison Forsting, and the late Sidney Harrison, Jr. (Iris). Dee Dee also leaves to cherish her memories her closest cousin, Kim Cain who is like a sister, and her favored little cousin Jayda Martin, as well as her nephews Dekalin Bishop and Errol "EJ" Young, her great nieces and nephew Serenity Modicue, Kyomi and Isaiah Young as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Dee Dee was born in New Orleans, LA and raised in Oakland, CA. She is a graduate of Oakland Technical High School where she was an enthusiastic dancer in the modern dance club. She returned to live in New Orleans in 1987 where she worked in food services as a server in the Central business district. Those who know Dee Dee would attest that she was an avid New Orleans Saints fan. She was also great with children, often referring to her younger cousins as her babies.

Relative and friends of the family, also employees of Welty's, Tulane Hospital & Staff of Dr. Robinson, LSUHSC pastor, officers and members of Household of Faith, priest and parishioners of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church are invited to attend Services at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, July 20, 2019 at Rhodes Westbank Chapel 1020 Virgil St., Gretna, LA 70053.
