Mother of Todd (Brooke) Soupenne. Sister of Eddie Mae Kenner (Joseph), Elizabeth Weatherspoon (Calvin) of Montgomery, AL, Georgia Mae Peters Adams of Irving, TX, Diane Banks of Chesapeake, VA and the late Clara Charlot (Norbert) of Los Angeles, CA, Bassanio Peters Sr. (Elfriede) of Los Angeles, CA, Winfred Peters Sr. (Vendoria), Elvira Peters, and Fred Peters. Niece of Eloise Neal. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Sylvia was raised to be a strong and independent woman from a very young age. Sylvia grew up in a large family but that didn’t stop her from being seen. Always looking to have a good time she would not hesitate to join in the fun. Sylvia’s nieces and nephews also knew her as the “cool auntie”; the one they knew they could turn to as a trustworthy confidant.

Sylvia, known as “Ms. D”, worked the majority of her career in the insurance industry for Pan American Life. There she established many life lasting friendships and enjoyed the time she was able to spend with her co-workers. For many years, Sylvia was a member of Bonanza Club. She was a fun, competitive, and savvy player. She enjoyed this lovely community of women and always looked forward to the time she spent with them. Additionally, Sylvia was a member of the Answering Mary's Call Rosary Group. Although raised Baptist she converted to Catholicism because she knew that was the way she wanted to serve God. She was a devout Catholic and lived her life by these principles. Over the years Sylvia was a faithful member of Corpus Christi Catholic Church and Transfiguration of the Lord Catholic Church.

"I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." -2 Timothy 4:7
