“ Mrs. Dolores was the epitome of what is considered a good neighbor. From the moment she rang my doorbell with a homemade cake to welcome me, to the many years we enjoyed each other's company, I will miss her smile and laughter. She was the only person to whom my cat, LunaLove, would lay at her feet and wait for a belly rub. Memories last a lifetime and I will have them of Mrs. Dolores which will serve as a comfort since she is no longer living next door. With great sadness, Patricia D. Morris
