

Doris Eva Bryan

April 21, 2021

Doris Eva Bryan (BIG D) age 78 and a lifelong resident of New Orleans, Louisiana, passed away on May 21, 2021 at West Jefferson Hospital 7:25 am. She was born on November 9, 1942 at Charity Hospital to her loving mother Eolar Doris Miller and father Percy Bryan. Doris attended Valena C Jones Elementary School. She was born with a unique learning disability which hindered her from furthering her school experience but excelled at the school of hard knocks by being a true child of god spreading love, light, and radiant energy to whomever she encountered. Doris enjoyed spending time with her family, friends, and children. She was always on the move. Doris attended church regularly, read many books, was an avid walker, dancer, and enjoyed being the life of the party. Doris intensely studied the Bible at the Kingdom Hall on Dryades Street with Sister Vanessa Booker and Sister Pearl Goodjoint. She had a knack for discovering new ways to broaden her horizons by consistently finding joy in whatever she did. Doris had a very pure heart and lived her best life. She always had a smile on her face and made sure to infectiously tell everyone she came into contact with "Hello!"

Doris Bryan is survived by her two children, daughter Sherlyn Marie Bryan Naquin and son Kenneth Kynt Bryan, son-in law Robert Naquin, brothers Ralph Bryan and Percy Bryan, sister in law Géraldine Bryan, many nieces and nephews, cousins, friends and countless other people her majestic presence encountered during her time on earth. May her memory live on. Doris will be truly missed.
