

Dorothy Matthews

February 28, 2014

Dorothy Little Matthews was a mother who enjoyed being with her family. Her house was the place to go if you wanted the very best “New Orleans Style Red Beans”. She was born in New Orleans, LA and raised in Jeanerette, LA. However, her heart belonged to New Orleans, she loved the City! She was married to William Matthews for over 30 years. Together they were blessed with seven children, Michael Matthews, Jacqueline Bates, Juliette Winston (Nathan), Karl Matthews, Sr. (Darlene), Janice Darby (Irvin), Janifer Matthews, and Jane James (Clinton). She also had 16 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren. She made everyone she touched feel special. Every one of her grandkids always said they were her favorite grandchild. She leaves two brothers to cherish her memories, Oscar “Sam” Little (Barbara) and Corneilous Lockett (Brenda). She was preceded in death by her husband, William Matthews, and two children, Michael and Janifer Matthews, and parents, Alfred Little and Dinah Lockett, her paternal grandparents, Oscar and Daisy Little and three sisters and one brother. Dorothy Matthews departed this life at the age of 83 surround by her family in the city she loved on February 28, 2014. “ To Ronald Matthews (Brother Wayne) and family..

*Our deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family in the loss of your sister whom I only knew as "Dolly" . I was honored to meet Dolly just one time here in Denver at the funeral services of my "step-father" and my Mother's husband Mr. George H. Matthews, Jr. Even then, I could see Ms. Dolly was a wonderful person with a sparkling personality, offering much love to her family and was a treasure in return to them. I know she will be missed - However, she is now "free".
May she rest in peace, eternally - Until we meet again - "Ms. Dolly".*

*"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted" -
Matthew 5:4"*
