“ Hi, this is Demetra I am a child hood friend of Eric. I am just seeing this today. I heard a song this morning that reminded me of Eric so I goggled his name in hopes of finding a current phone number because we hadn't spoke in years. And the obituary was the first thing that came up...my tears instantly started falling. Eric and I friendship dates back to our Greater Saint Stephens days...at church sitting upstairs being teenagers. I am so sorry you are gone my friend, I'm sad that I didn't get a chance to say goodbye. You were a good dude and I miss you. I will keep the memories in heart of you that makes me smile. To the Davis family i am so sorry Eric is gone I'm sending love and light your way, I hope you all are doing well.

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to The Davis family and friends. Eric's passing has left a giant hole in the hearts of all of us who were fortunate enough to have had him in our lives. I will always have terrific memories of Eric. As a friend & former co-worker of Eric, I was blessed to have met him. He brought so much joy, humor, laughter, compassion, and a much needed listening ear to us all when we needed it. Mostly, I remember every day he came to work at The University of Tulsa & proudly boasted about his dear wife & beloved children. My favorite memories of Eric are talking to him about our mutual adoration of his beloved city of New Orleans, our zeal as NBA fans, and, finally, our love for our respective families. I am grateful for the brief time we shared while working together. Eric will be missed immensely. Eric, you were truly special and Thank You for gracing my life with your friendship. To The Davis family, I hope you find some solace in your time of grief knowing you are in my thoughts, may your pain subside in time, and your hearts heal. I am so terribly sorry. Eric will ALWAYS be remembered.

Sincerely,

“ Dear Family, please accept my deepest condolences for your devastating loss. God knows the many tears that you cry. In the days ahead as you reflect on the many beautiful memories that Eric left to cherish, may your hearts be moved. May God caress your aching hearts with his loving promise to reunite you together again in the future Paradise when he will bring an end to sickness, pain and even death. (Revelation 21:4, 5) You're in my prayers. (Acts 24:15)

“ One day Kema called me telling me she had been really, really sick. The kind of stuck in the bed sick... I asked her if she needed anything and she said no Eric was taking good care of her. I decided that I would pay her a visit and see if I could help her feel better or cheer her up at least. She invited me to sit on the bed where we talked and chatted. I had brought her some magazines and a box of cherries. But the cherries amazed her, she said she had never seen any cherries that look like this!! She called out for Eric then known as "Bae" as she affectionately called him. At once he was by her side. She showed him the peach looking cherries.. All yellow with little spots of red... Eric too seemed a little amazed. But after examining them... He began to feed them to Kema one at a time. And that's how I left him... Sitting as support, at his wife's side. I will always remember Big Eric that way...lovingly at Kema's side.

“ To Kema and family, So sorry to learn of the loss of Eric - he was quite the gentleman and with you by his side, you all were a dynamic couple. I will always be eternally thankful and grateful to you and Eric for making my daughter, Kim Brown aka Raven Russ, welcome in your home while she was working in Tulsa. You and the boys and the rest of your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I pray that the good times and fond memories of Eric will sustain you right now. Peace, love and blessings, Jean and Kimberly Brown, Laurel, Maryland
