“ I've known Mr. Ernie since 1979. I met him when he was Manager of the Exxon Car Care Center on Carrollton Avenue. I had taken my car in for repair. Mr. Ernie was a kind person. He was always telling a joke, or saying something funny to lift one's feelings. He talked a lot. He was able to impart words of wisdom about life and offer a good outlook about life and people in general. He was a wise man. A hardworking family man. My cousins, my friends, and I, also, knew Mr. Ernie from the neighborhood where his family had the drycleaning business, and from his time at Charbonnet Labat Funeral Home. We are saddened by Mr. Ernie's passing. We believe that he is safe, well and joyful in the presence of our Lord.
