“ I have so many treasured memories of Ernestine. My most golden moments with her occurred when I was a pre-teen living in New Orleans. "Teen" lived with my family while her husband was in the military, and she was the "big sister" that I needed during her stay. I thought she was the most beautiful young woman I had ever seen; but it was her warmth, smile and encouragement that I cherished most. She was a role model and a friend that I wanted to emulate. My admiration for her increased even more when her son was born and she became a wonderful mother; I had the experience of living with a tiny "human water spout" that grew, smiled and cooed every day. Even after she no longer lived with us, I continued to look upon her as a role model. Thank you my wonderful cousin for being there for me. You will live in my heart forever.
