“ Eustis was a great fellow, with a big heart and always shared the benefits of his wisdom. He worked on the “Train line” for many years as a Pullman conductor, and he came into contact with persons from all parts of this nation, with the depth and character of a man who knew himself and presented himself as a proud American. As a resident of New York, he would often talk about his love of jazz and the people he met in his life in the Northeast and here in our great city of New Orleans. Eustis was a confident, honorable and decent gentleman who cares about this country. He was patriotic, empathetic and generous and lived out the remainder of his life in New Orleans conducting himself within those creeds. He will be missed.... Godspeed Brother Eustis!!

“ Dear Guillemet Family: I didn't hear about Mr. Eustis' passing until today, then saw that the service was yesterday. I wish I could have been there. Mr. Eustis was the bright spot at our political meetings. I loved him and am so sad and will miss him so much. So many of us will. We were all blessed to know him. -- Chrissy Changho Bruneau
