“ My beloved Eva, my Hip,

Three days ago, I found out that you had been called home in His great love,

I was in another place serving a Church in Houston.

After

some years I became deathly ill. I came home followed By intense therapy and a long road. I am still taking the walk.

*Oh, my Hip, my heart is inconsolable. Tears fall from my eyes
Now as I write.*

*I remember so much, so much laughter, hard study at East
Jefferson Hospital, cleaning
Your home after Katrina, the tears always holding each other up always deeply
In deep and abiding love for one another. You even drove hundreds of miles to Be in my Wedding. I will cherish all the pictures always.*

I feel so profoundly empty and lost without you. My grief is inconsolable.

Yet, I know you are in a joy I can't begin to understand.

You will forever be in my heart always,always,always !

Please Walter if you get this please tell me where you laid her so I could sit

Beside her and remember all the times we had.

I love you so my Hip. Jesus holds you so within His sacred love !
