

Eyck Craig Wimby Sr

May 16, 2023

Eyck Craig Wimby, Sr., answered the call to eternal rest on Tuesday, May 16, 2023, at the age of 43. He attended Nichols High School (Fredrick A. Douglass) and later received his G.E.D. in the State of Louisiana. He was a member of The Potters House of Dallas, TX, and Beacon Light International Baptist Cathedral of New Orleans, LA. He worked as a truck driver for Liberty Tire Recycling Co, where his passion for the road grew. He later became an Owner/Operator of a business shared with his wife, Anchored Logistics, LLC, a freight transportation company whose slogan is, “We Tread with Purpose.”

Eyck was a gentle giant. A man of kind words. He had skilled hands that mastered everything he touched. From birth, his mother knew his hands were special. At a youthful age, his first project was building a small sweetshop out of wood borrowed from the neighbor’s siding. As he grew older, he developed a passion for cooking and grilling NOLA style. He also enjoyed fixing cars, playing chess, and building things. He was a man of order. He loved nature and all of God’s creations, hence everything creeping and crawling. He was competitive and determined to have things his way. More importantly, he had an extremely kind heart and brought joy to everyone’s life. The love that he displayed throughout his life toward others was a direct reflection of his love for Jesus Christ. He further advanced his skills by receiving certifications in Culinary Arts, Veterinarian Prep, and Christian studies.

Eyck was born to the late Earl C. Wimby, III, and Anna Guillemet Wimby, on June 30, 1979, in New Orleans, LA. Brother of the late Tracey A. Broome, and Earl C. Wimby, IV (Woogie). He was preceded in death by his Wimby and Guillemet grandparents, and his nephew Torian A. Broome. He was a loving father to Damon Q. Weaver, Asia C. Wimby, Eyck C. Wimby, Jr., Emoni C. Wimby, and Chyna A. Farrar. He adored them all. He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Israel Wimby; sister, Erika W. May (Sammie); brother, Yedidiah Louis; granddaughter, Lauryn M. Weaver, and expecting "baby" Finley; aunts, Elizabeth Hawk (Terry) and Elayne W. Birch; uncles Carl, Pershing, Eustis and Earl Guillemet; mother-in-law, Sheron V. Weaver; father-in-law, Chris Weaver III (Debra); godfather, Sam Francis; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren, and dear friends.

Eyck's life exemplified the meaning of resilience, it tells a story of how one can persevere, walk upright, remain Holy, and without blemish. He leaves a legacy that by faith, you can conquer adversity and finish the race strong, ultimately receiving your eternal reward.

“MAN, that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery.

For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

The life of a man is no longer measured by the length of time they live but the impact of their lives.

While just 12 years Eyck's senior, he affectionately called me "Mother Teresa".

At first, I thought why would he give me such an old title. It wasn't until I came to know him better that I realized it was a title of honor and respect.

Eyck worked hard to become the best version of himself and wanted this same transformation for everyone he encountered. Although Eyck never answered or announced a call to preach the Glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ, he strived every day to point people to His Savior.

"E" as I called him, knew God personally. He was a man of great faith and compassion.

As I pen these words, I thought if there was one thing that he would want me to say to his family and friends; it would be to prepare. While his transition has left an unforgettable void in our hearts, E was prepared. The time is now for us all to be ready for our name to be called.

Live in peace with all mankind as much as possible. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and soul and all your strength. These are the things I believe E would want me to share with you.

To Israel my sister-friend, I pray that the strength of God will carry you through this new journey of life. I pray that God's peace will overshadow the pain of your heart and that His grace and mercy will be with you as you continue to heal and keep the family together.

To Asia, Damon, Eyck, Emoni and Chyna; I pray that God will be a gap filled for you all. He promised to be a father to the fatherless. I pray that you will have more memories of brighter days than grief.

I know that the Holy Spirit will be available to comfort and guide you through this difficult time.

To anyone who will read this message.

*Get right payday is coming after while.
Fondly,
"Mother Teresa"*
