Farrell G. Porche II was born on January 3, 1971 and entered into eternal rest on September 3, 2023 in New Orleans, LA. Farrell was born in Los Angeles, California. He was born to Farrell G. Porche, I and Barbara Sigur Porche. Farrell moved between Los Angeles and New Orleans early in life. At the age of four, he relocated to New Orleans where he attended First Assembly of God Elementary School. He moved back to New Orleans when he was 15 and attended John Curtis High School. He went on to complete his GED. After high school, Farrell decided to make New Orleans his home.

Farrell had an uncanny ability to break down barriers and foster genuine connections with people from all walks of life. It didn't matter if you were a longtime friend or a stranger he had just met; Farrell treated everyone with the same warmth and open-heartedness that endeared him to so many. Farrell's love for his city was evident in everything he did. He connected with numerous people through his love for physical fitness and his work in the restaurant industry. He was known for his excellent serving skills at some of the French Quarter's finest establishments: Antoine's, Galatoire's, The Court of Two Sisters, and Arnaud's. Later in life, Farrell followed his dreams and started several entrepreneurial ventures: Porche Painting, and Porche Concierge.

Farrell was a free spirit and loved to make everyone laugh. He was dedicated to the Lord at Avalon Zion Four Square Church in Los Angeles, California. His faith and his relationship with the Lord were very important to him. He was truly loved by his family and friends.

“ I was unable to attend service for Farrell due to my health but I really wanted to express how special he was to me and that I will miss him everyday. He was a good friend to me. I remember so many insightful and meaningful talks we had and his entrepreneurial business ventures he would run by me that I would sometimes be reluctant to support, but in the end, he always triumphed in them. He was never afraid to take chances in the business ventures he embarked upon. He was smart, brave, supportive, and courageous with just a little dash of crazy that we all love and I will miss the most. Love you Ferrell. Always, Erica Farrell death broke my son s' heart. He and Coye attended First Assembly together and remained friends over the years. Although they were miles apart they stayed in touch. We were not aware that Farrell transitioned. That broke our hearts. The Devrouax family will always keep Farrell in our hearts and will keep the family in our thoughts and prayers.
