“ We are missing you dearly. Missing you more than words can say. Though you're gone, your love will continue to guide us. Thank you for everything and know you're forever loved and remembered. Thank you for the beautiful stories (the hot grits and papa was my favorite story) and all the late night talks. What an incredible time we shared during your transition year, it was the best time we've ever had. Each memory spent with you is a snapshot of joy. Thank you for filling my album with such beautiful moments. We celebrate the life you lived every chance we get.
