“ Dear Charlotte and the Calvin Family,

My heart goes out to you all. My dear Charlotte, please know that I love you. To the Calvin family, I love you all because of my love for Charlotte. You have my condolences, and my prayers. If Michael and I can do anything, anything at all, please let us know. May the Lord comfort you and give you strength during this time.

“ To The Calvin Family

I am one of Charlotte's coworkers. I am deeply touched by the recent loss of your Dear George. I know he was a dear man if he was related to sweet, Charlotte. I will be praying for your strength during this time of healing.

God Be With You and Your Family,

“ To the Calvin family:

You have my deepest condolences and utmost sympathy during this time. My heart breaks for you have as you say "see you later" to your father, grandfather, uncle, brother, cousin, preacher, mentor, and friend. I had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Calvin a few times and one thing is for sure, he was a man who said what he meant and meant every word of what he said. I respect that in a man and especially in a man of God. I genuinely respected Rev. Calvin and loved his spirit. My only regret is that I wasn't around him more. Charlotte, my friend and sister, you are in my heart and prayers continually. If my wife and I can do anything for you, please don't hesitate to let us know. To all the family, I leave you with the words of the Apostle Paul in I Thessalonians 4:13 "Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope." [NIV] You have the right to grieve. The right to be sorrowful, the right to mourn, the right to scream, yell, cry, and do whatever it is you need to do to express your sadness. Just don't grieve like those you have no hope. Rev. Calvin is in the presence of Christ and is enjoying his new home. Allow this truth to comfort you in the days and weeks ahead. God bless you all.
