“ *In my garden of memories I see you standing their...An Angel in disguise.
Who taught me how to love and care...
I long to hear your voice, touch your hand....in person not in my dreams.
I am missing you so much these days, how empty my world seems.
People say time heals all wounds that some day the pain will subside,
But Granny I can tell you I think they must have lied.
The emptiness I am feeling now is strong and I am weak..
These days go by without you are so dreary and so bleak...
In my garden of memories I know you will always be for though You're gone from this mortal world, in My heart you will always be.*

*Missing her....Rest In Peace Granny!
Love you.....Cybil Marie*

“ *In my garden of memories I see you standing there.
An angel in disguise who taught me how to Love and Care.
I long to hear your voice for real and not just in a dream.
I am missing you so much these days, how empty my life seems.
People say time heals all wounds that some day the pain will subside,
But Granny, I can surely tell you I think they must have lied.
The emptiness I am feeling now is so strong and I am weak, these days go by without you life is so dreary and so bleak.
In my garden of memories I know you will always be, for though you are gone from this mortal world, in my Heart You Will Always Be....*

“ Ms Davillier was a most valuable member of the anesthesia team at Charity Hospital. For decades she helped our student nurse anesthetists as though they were members of her own family. She will be missed by all of us who worked with her, but especially by the thousands of nurse anesthetists she helped when they were undergoing a very demanding period of professional training.

“ Jennifer and family, I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved grandmother and mother. I loved Nanny Georgiana. I loved her spirit, I loved her spunk, I loved her conversations and I loved how much she loved my grandmother, Rosemary Jase. Grandma Rose will miss her best friend beyond description, but is thankful to have 80 years of friendship and fond memories to cherish. Jenn, Nanny Georgiana was so proud of you. She talked about you all the time and before the hurricane and sometime afterwards, she'd share with me the funniest stories of your kids and then boast about how smart they were. Meanwhile, take care Jenn and family. I'll be thinking about you during this trying time. Amina Ferrouillet

“ Your relative was a wonderful addition to the Charity Anesthesia department . She always had a smile on her face and was most helpful to hose of us who worked there. If you needed anything done, she was the person who could usually help. She was greatly missed w hen she retired and I'm sure she will be as equally missed bythose of her loved ones left behind. She was a wonderful lady and my condolences to all of you . Ginger Lefevre, CRNA, CharityDept of Anesthesia , Retired.

“ My Dearest Cybil, Cyril III, Chris Sr, Jennifer, Claudine and Cedric Jr,
My heart especially goes out to you all with the lost of your grandmother (Maw Maw). You all were wonderful grandchildren that incorporated her in your lives throughout Atlanta and Florida. I am so happy I was able to share in those memories. Let it be a Baptism, graduation, dance recital or a First Holy Communion, she was there because you cared to include her. Please believe me, she knew how much she was loved. Hold close to those memories and cherish them always.
Love,
Auntie Alva

“ Dearest Jr and Cedric,
I will always have fond memories as a child and as an adult of the many New Years's Eve celebrations on DeBore Drive, the Christmas Dinners on Aberdeen Road and the many conversations she had with me during Hurricane Katrina and there after when she settled on Congress Drive. Your mother was a happy woman that always made an effort to stay in touch, she loved her family endlessly.
With Deepest Sympathy,
Love,
