“ I was one of Geraldine's nurses at ICU Ochsner. Even though I only met and knew her for a couple of days, we bonded and shared a special relationship. She was the nicest person, brave and loving. Her family and friends numerous. I was sad to hear of her passing, but know she is in a better place leading the choir with her beautiful voice and sprit. I wish her sons and family the best.

“ I would like to express my condolence. God's word the Bible offers great comfort during these times. I encourage your family to read John 5:28,29. Jesus speaks of the resurrection when we will see our love ones again in the near future.
