“ To the family, I am sincerely sorry for your loss. May our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) the God of all comfort , comfort you. Death is truly an enemy and he promises to swallow up death forever. ( Isaiah 25:8). Through his son Christ Jesus , God offers the wonderful hope of a resurrection ( a standing to life again) . Acts 24:15. John 5:28,29. Isaiah 26:19. Revelation 21:3-5. These scriptures have been encouraging to me; I hope they prove encouraging to you also.

Sincerely,
C.Peoples

“ I met little Miss Georgia Mae when she was about 7 years old. She was always smiling and happy. Everyone "babied" her not because she was battling sickle cell but because she loved everyone! Especially her big brothers! Nobody can tell her big brothers nothing! She grew (way taller than me!) into a beautiful young lady but two thing never changed: her smile and the love she had for everyone! So heartbroken to see her leave us. So heart-filled that she suffers no more. When Georgia saw Jesus, I bet she said "Amen!" and Jesus said "well done. welcome home!"
