Henrietta "Mitzi" Eller Berlin 1933-2014 Henrietta "Mitzi" Berlin was welcomed by the Lord on December 16, 2014. Mitzi was born on March 6, 1933 in New Orleans. She joins in heaven her husband Joseph "Jack" Berlin, her parents Carl and Edna Eller, and her brother Carl Eller. Mitzi is survived by her twin sister, Catherine "Kitzi" Palmer. She leaves her children, who cherish her memory, Joseph (Kathleen) Berlin, Jack (Edna) Berlin, Jill (Thomas) Slack, Julie (Joseph) Ferrara, and Jacob (Teresa) Berlin, as well 17 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Mitzi graduated from Loyola University New Orleans in 1953. She retired as a schoolteacher from the New Orleans Public School System after more than 25 years of service. Mitzi was a member of St. Andrew Catholic Church, the Kappa Kappa Iota Sorority of Retired Educators, and Aurora Country Club where she was an avid swimmer and tennis player. Her active lifestyle also included gardening, bicycling, and playing piano. Later in life, she took interest in caring for injured birds with her grandson until they could be released, and raised several quail, including one she particularly loved that she named Lagniappe. A service will be held Saturday, December 20, 11:00 am, after visitation at 9:00 am, at St. Andrew Catholic Church at 3101 Eton Street, New Orleans. Burial will follow at St. Louis Cemetery Number 3 on Esplanade Avenue. The family extends a special thank you to Timmy Cook for the many devotional hours caring for Mitzi in her most delicate hours. -
