“ My God Herman I truly miss you being around. You was like my father. I remember my first day of school when you had to take me and I did not want to go to class, so I had to go to class with you. That went on for a week or so until Fat came to school and took me the room I had to go to. I remember the look on you face and I was crying, but we both made it thru that once Fat came. I really miss you Herman and hoping that you and FAT are watching down on us. I love you so much but I know that God Love you best, so I am coping with you gone from this old world. One day I will get to see you and Fat, Catherine and so many other. Love you Herman your sister Liz.
