

Hilda Mae Henderson

September 3, 2020

Hilda Mae Henderson gained her wings and was called home at 59 years young on Thursday, September 3, 2020. The city was shaken as many family friends, and associates came together to remember her big personality, bright smile and love for those around her. She will be missed dearly. She was born on August 31, 1962 in New Orleans, LA. Hilda attended Booker T.

Washington. She found herself in the hospitality industry which would fit her nurturing and vibrant personality. She worked for the Hyatt Regency prior to Katrina. She would later start working for Hotel Monteleon, to where she would stay. She was preceded in death by her beautiful mother Johnie Henderson, loving father L.B Mark, and sweet sister Lily Jackson. Hilda leaves behind her most prized and unforgettable memories to her children, Shawanda & Kendell Winchester, Yolanda & Michael, Wallace & Yashica and Tamika Profit. She leaves behind 12 grandchildren, who she loves dearly. Hilda is survived by her sister Johnell Gamble., her brother Vincent Henderson., a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, in- laws, and a devoted life partner.
