

Hope Robinson Brown

May 19, 2026

Hope Robinson Brown, 37, passed away peacefully on May 19, 2026, while in the loving presence of her mother, Cleo Robinson, after courageously fighting until the very end. Born on October 24, 1988, Hope lived a life marked by warmth, laughter, strength, and compassion, leaving a lasting impact on everyone fortunate enough to know her.

Hope was the beloved daughter of Matthew and Cleo Robinson, and a devoted wife to her husband, Harland Brown. She embraced family wholeheartedly and was a loving bonus mother to her three beloved bonus children, cherishing the special bond she shared with each of them. She also shared an unbreakable bond with her cherished fur baby, Empress Christina Brown, who brought her immense joy, love, and companionship.

A proud graduate 2006 of Xavier University Preparatory School in New Orleans, Louisiana. Hope carried herself with grace, resilience, and a genuine love for others. She had a gift for encouraging people, uplifting spirits, and making others laugh. Her smile and laughter could brighten any room, and her loving heart touched many lives.

Hope also had a special love for all things The Princess and the Frog, a story that held deep meaning to her and her family. She especially treasured its connection to New Orleans and to her family's place in the foundation of the story, embracing the joy, culture, and magic it represented.

Hope had a passion for beauty and creativity, especially when it came to doing nails and hair. She found happiness in helping others feel beautiful and confident, using her talents to bring joy to those around her.

Hope loved God and knew He loved her. Her faith brought her comfort and strength throughout her life and remained an important part of who she was.

Known for her strength and determination, Hope fought courageously until the very end, demonstrating the same resilience that defined her life. She was preceded in death by her beloved grandparents, Matthew and Leah Robinson, also Roy and Cleo Baham, whose love and legacy remained a meaningful part of her life.

Hope will be remembered for her loving spirit, vibrant personality, unwavering encouragement, and the joy she brought to so many.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving mother, Cleo Robinson; her father, Matthew Robinson; her devoted husband, Harland Brown; her three beloved bonus children; her cherished fur baby, Empress Christina Brown; along with many extended family members, dear friends, classmates, and loved ones who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

A memorial ceremony will be announced at a later date. Cremation arrangements by D.W. Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Ave. New Orleans, LA 70125. Please visit www.rhodesfuneral.com to sign the online guestbook.

Though Hope's presence will be deeply missed, her love, laughter, strength, and beautiful spirit will remain with all who knew and loved her.
